

A PARENTS PROMISE TO PUT CHILDREN FIRST

In order to foster a positive, pleasant experience for my child who is participating in sports, I will promise to do the following:

As a parent, I promise, to put my child's emotional and physical needs ahead of my own individual desire to win.

As a parent, I promise, to be realistic about the athletic ability of my child and will strive to help my child set realistic goals for their performance.

As a parent, I promise, to teach my child that doing their best is far more important than winning.

As a parent, I promise, to remember that children learn best by example. Therefore, I promise to encourage the players of both teams with positive words for all players and will refrain from making rude and insulting comments to any player, parent, official, coach or other staff.

As a parent, I promise, to show respect for the coaches of my child by giving them support, helping them when necessary and by communicating with them.

As a parent, I promise, to insist that my child have a safe and healthy sporting environment that is free of tobacco, drugs and alcohol and will refrain from their use at any and all youth sporting events.

As a parent, I promise, to look over and understand the rules of each of the sports that my child participates in and will help the coach with teaching these rules to my child.

As a parent, I promise, to remember that my child plays sports for their enjoyment and not mine.

As a parent, I promise, to remember that the sporting event is for the children and not the adults.
